

CHRISTIANS UNITED FOR ISRAEL

YOUR DONATIONS AT WORK

Dear Partner,

The New Year is getting off to a swift start and we pray 2014 finds you and your loved ones in good health and spirits. The past two months have been among the busiest Christians United for Israel has ever seen; allow us to share some of our ongoing efforts with you.

In Washington, the battle rages to advance sanctions against Iran. The White House has threatened to veto any new legislation that would hold Iran to account for its nuclear weapons program. But CUFI has been on the forefront of working to enlist Members of Congress in support vital legislation that would do exactly that. Thus far 59 Senators have cosponsored tough new sanctions legislation against Iran. But to overcome President Obama's veto threat, we must ensure the bill passes by a two-thirds majority. So we are hard work communicating the importance of this action to our elected officials – and we will neither "slumber nor sleep" until this bill passes.

We are also working diligently to ensure our members are well aware of the challenges facing Israel. To that end, in late December we held an event at Dr. Charles Stanley's Atlanta-based church featuring Israeli Ambassador to the United States Ron Dermer. The audience, made up of over 200 Christian leaders and activists, came away with a newfound understanding of the critical circumstances in the region and the importance of speaking up in support for the Jewish State.

These important efforts in the here and now are vital, but we must also look to the future. And during the past two months, our initiative to grow Israel's base of support continued at full steam.

We recently sent four separate groups of pastors to Israel – totaling more than 100 clergymen – where they saw Israel's struggle firsthand. They met with Israeli soldiers on the border with Lebanon. They visited holy sites in Jerusalem forever connecting them spiritually to this sacred land and her people. They and their congregations will never be the same. And Israel has 100 new leaders in her corner!

As these trips were taking place, 100 students converged on the CUFI headquarters in San Antonio. These future pastors, elected officials, and civic leaders heard from Middle East experts and some of the nation's leading Christian Zionists. They learned about the Biblical, moral and historical reasons why Christians must stand with the Jewish people. And they were given the tools to return to their universities and fight back against the rising tide of anti-Semitism found on the American college campus.

In the coming months we will continue all of these efforts. We will hold pro-Israel events in cities and towns and on college campuses across the country, and we will communicate the importance of standing with Israel to our elected officials. Simultaneously, we will advance plans for CUFI's premier annual event, the Washington Summit, which will take place in July of this year.

We must never forget that CUFI exists for such a time as this. And we must always remember the importance of guaranteeing that we are each day ever-stronger. We must forever remember to never stop praying for Israel but also realize that prayer is a partner with and not a substitute for righteous action!

Thank you for ensuring our ability to engage in this vital mission. We pray you will continue to be there for Israel and for CUFI in the days ahead.

Blessings to you and those you love,
