

YOUR DONATIONS AT WORK

Dear Partner,

Over the past few weeks, our field efforts have been unrelenting, and so too has been our effort to affect policy in our nation's capital.

Following news that Iran had appointed a terrorist who participated in the 1979 takeover of the U.S. Embassy in Tehran as its UN Ambassador, the Senate swiftly passed legislation that would prevent such terrorists from receiving visas to enter the U.S.

When CUFI got word that the bill may be stalling in the House of Representatives, we kicked our political operations into high gear.

CUFI staff communicated with congressional offices as thousands of CUFI activists responded to an action alert aimed at moving the bill forward without delay. Less than a day later, the House of Representatives unanimously approved the measure. And the following day, the White House announced their intention to deny the terrorist a visa.

In CUFI's Western region, we held 19 events in 15 days, featuring IDF Maj. (res.) Elliot Chodoff. From Sacramento to Portland to Las Vegas, Chodoff briefed Christian and Jewish Zionists from a host of denominations and backgrounds on the present situation in the Middle East. According to CUFI western region coordinator, Randy Neal, "Maj. Chodoff's briefings were an extremely sobering assessment of Israel's security situation and Iran's nuclear weapons program. There was an overwhelming response to our efforts to bring people of faith together in support of Israel and many individuals came up to me afterwards and expressed their renewed sense of commitment and urgency to ensure their communities would be well represented at CUFI's Washington Summit in July." Neal said.

As Neal and Chodoff were barnstorming the west coast, CUFI on Campus was hard at work beating back the anti-Israel forces at some of the most notorious campuses in the country.

As a first installment of our BDS (Boycott Divestment Sanctions) Pushback Tour, CUFI on Campus brought a Holocaust Survivor, an Arab-Israeli Christian Zionist and a British Muslim Zionist to the eight most anti-Israel universities in California.

Because of their diverse backgrounds and experiences, these individuals are uniquely suited to disprove the anti-Israel slanders we so often hear on America's college campuses today. According to reports from staff in the field, the response was overwhelming as many students were hearing positive stories about Israel for the very first time.

From Main Street to Constitution Ave, from the college campuses to Capitol Hill, CUFI is getting the job done. But we couldn't do it without you, thank you for your much needed help.

Your pro-Israel voice is what the college student, community leader and member of congress needs to hear. And never will this be more apparent and important than during our upcoming Washington Summit, set to take place on July 21st-22nd.

We have been chosen to stand in the gap to demonstrate Christian support by coming in mass to the CUFI Summit in our nation's capital.

Christians are mandated to pray for the Peace of Jerusalem but remember this truth: Prayer is not a substitute for righteous action! We must pray AND take action!

We hope and pray that you will join us in Washington July 21-22—we look forward to standing shoulder-to-shoulder with you as together we stand with Israel and the Jewish people!

Blessings to you and those you love,
